

International Association for Corporate & Professional Recruitment

The IACPR Vision

The IACPR provides an environment and opportunities for members to:

- Meet other senior-level executives with mutual interests focused on recruitment and retention challenges,
- Get to know recruitment professionals from both corporate and retained search on neutral ground,
- Exchange information in comfortable, collegial and interactive settings where networking is encouraged and trust fostered and
- Pursue the continuing development of professional and personal relationships, knowing that the enforcement of a strict non-solicitation policy is one of the cornerstones of the Association.
